stock mainly in the area of print music. We plan to continue to carry print, but in a more limited way. Since our move to a smaller location we do not have the space to adequately display all of the stock that we have requiring us to maintain several storage units. At this time we would like to reduce the number of storage units.

We also have a number of displays in storage that are for sale. If you're interested in displays or know of someone who may be please contact the store for more information.
