Update From our Firm: COVID-19 Response

In accordance with Governor Wolf's order for all "non-life sustaining" businesses in the state of Pennsylvania to close their business locations, our office space is currently closed for in person meetings. Our firm remains available to assist clients, and are fully prepared to function as a remote office for as long as necessary.

If you want to contact an attorney, we ask that you would reach out via a contact form on our website or by e-mail at jmpatzlaw@gmail.com. We are prepared to discuss your legal needs through e-mail, phone, or video conference.

Allegheny County Family Division is closed for all proceedings other than Protection from Abuse matters from now until April 7, 2020. We will advise of any alternative procedures in place for Family Division and other courts in place for court appearances and filing deadlines. Electronic filing is still able to occur. This means that much of our work remains unaffected, and we want to make sure we continue to take care of your legal needs.

We Want to Help

We want to find ways to give back during this time, and to keep working hard for our community. We are offering a free 30-minute phone consultation to discuss legal documents, whether it be PoA's, Trusts, Estate Planning, Financial Documents, etc. We hope that you will choose to have our firm assist you with the execution of these documents, but we are also happy to provide insight and an honest assessment of your legal needs. Please email us or fill out a contact form on our website to set up an appointment.
